STATEMENT OF IMPUTATIONS OF MISCONDUCT OR MISBEHAVIOUR IN SUPPORT OF THE ARTICLE OF CHARGES FRAMED AGAINST DR. ARIFUDDIN AHMED, REGIONAL DEPUTY DIRECTOR, WARANGAL, AYUSH DEPARTMENT.

1. The Regional Deputy Director, Department of AYUSH, Warangal has not followed the instructions issued by the Head of Department while issuing the notification itself and not bifurcated the posts of Compounder system wise in all Districts.
2. The Regional Deputy Director's office has not maintained the record of receipt of applications post wise and district wise and have not closed the register on the last date and taken the signature of the concerned officer.
3. The Regional Deputy Director, Department of AYUSH, Warangal has totally depended on (2) or (3) staff members in the entire process of recruitment and the staff members were totally failed in taking collective responsibility.
4. The Regional Deputy Director, Department of AYUSH, Warangal and the office Superintendent have failed to control the staff of the office at the time of process of recruitment.
5. As seen from the application of the Complainer Sri Pullala Ramesh he applied for the post of Compounder from Warangal District and enclosed the pass certificate of higher secondary certificate of Multi purpose (CBSC) and also passed Training of Multipurpose health assistant but has not strike out for which post he applied where as the Regional Deputy Director, Department of AYUSH, Warangal has included his name in the Sweeper-cum-Nursing orderly post and called for written test and for interview without clarifying from the candidate for which post he applied. As per the observation of Enquiry Officer at the time of enquiry on verification of original application he might have called for interview to the post of Compounder only as he has passed intermediate (CBSC) with science subjects and also Multipurpose health assistant training.
6. In another complaint by Sri M.Bhadraiah has stated that as per the ratio 1:3 called for Sweeper-cum-Nursing Orderly post they have to call for (66) candidates since the total posts of Sweeper-cum-Nursing Orderly are (22) but the Regional Deputy Director, Warangal has called for only (59) candidates thus he done injustice to (7) un-employees.

On the other allegations that some of the selected candidates are kith and kin of the staff members of office of the Regional Deputy Director, Department of AYUSH, Warangal and they have selected their own people even though they have given empty papers at the time of examination.
